From the Editor:

Dear Schoolmates,

With time goes progress;
with progress goes something to be remembered.

Our goal is to please you, to afford you with a condensed record of your school life. We the editors, business managers, photographers, artists, typists, and sponsor have worked hard to bring this book to you. We sincerely hope it will serve you for many years to come.

Finding it impossible to express in sketches and phrases our true impression of high school, we invite you to look behind the pictures - read between the lines.
Only there is it possible to catch a glimpse of the personalities and activities we know and love.

A Message from Our Principal

To operate smoothly in a manner pleasing to all, a school needs a strong "esprit de corps"--a sense of union, common interests, and responsibilities.

Every student and faculty member should feel that his position is important and should realize that the moment he neglects his position then other students and other faculty members are concerned. All the parts of a school are necessary and every department, club, and activity has an important place.

I personally appreciate the excellent cooperation I have received from our school board, our fine faculty group, and from the members of the student body. It is my fondest hope that Pierceton will continue to grow in loyalty, cooperation, and educational opportunities.

School Board

Maynard Spann, Richard Pletcher, James Tuttle, Carl Franks, Walter Warner.

On August 1, 1955, we will be celebrating the third birthday of the Monroe-Washington School Corporation. We have gone a long way since 1952 in cementing this school unit into a working partnership, which has proved very advantageous to both townships.

The members of our first board were President, Richard Pletcher; Secretary, Clifford Sellers; Treasurer, James O. Tuttle. Colonel L. Likens and Maynard Spann made up the balance of the school board. Since 1952, the personnel of the school board has changed from time to time, but we have always been fortunate to have the same high type people directing the affairs of the Corporation. The work of this board has been very unselfish in dealing with the problems of the schools, and at no time has partisan feeling entered into their decisions.

We are confidently looking forward to one of the finest school systems in the county and with the earnest cooperation of all concerned, that aim is assured.

James O. Tuttle

Seniors

This year the seniors chose the motto "Today Decides Tomorrow" and robin-egg blue and silver as class colors. A red rose was selected as class flower.

The annual "Skip Day" was a trip to Pokagon State Park. Tobogganing, sledding, table tennis, and pool were enjoyed by everyone.

The class of '55 sponsored a combined bingo party and cake-walk as a money raising plan. One gross of fire-extinguishers was also sold by the class. Their last fund making scheme was a turkey raffle held during the Pierceton-Akron basket ball game. The profits from these projects went toward the Boersma Train Trip to New York City and Washington D.C.

A visit to Capitol Hill to see the House and Senate Rooms and to watch Congress in session is planned. Mt. Vernon and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers will be seen while in Washington D.C. A boat ride around New York and a sightseeing bus tour is scheduled to give the seniors a prospective view of the city life. The class is also planning to view the inside of a big ocean liner. Two nightclubs are on the list of interests for the seniors-one in Washington and one in New York. Miss Yontz and Mr. Mowrey are to accompany the group on the journey.

Juniors

The Junior year is built around sales; Junior Room, cookies, and card sales with which we came through with flying colors.

We started the year off with a big bang by having a hayride on September 17 (Results -- week later one member of the class landed in the hospital -- blame it on the food!)

A few days later our class rings arrived and after the usual swapping, we went on to continue the year rhining our prized possessions.

Next we tackled card sales with Sue Henderson's team defeating Paul Smith's. The usual payoff, a chili supper was held.

Then of course the basketball season started and crowd selling began. (If we were once shy, we aren't anymore!)

It is the privilege of the Junior class to choose three candidates for basketball queen. This year the class chose Rosalie Hartman, Marilyn Slaymaker, and Pat Walsh. Rosalie was selected by the student body as our queen for 1954-1955.

In order to add a little more to our treasury, cookies were sold twice during the year.

We Juniors all agree that this year has gone very fast. Seriously, most of us are looking forward to our senior year, maybe with a little doubt, but if it compares with this year in any way, it will have a happy ending.

Sophomores

The class of "57", what a gang!

The teachers look at us and say

Bang, Bang, Bang! (Just kidding)

We do have fun, but we also believe in working. We the future seniors of "57" have been toiling diligently to obtain some of that green stuff called money. We added to our treasury, a sum of $477.93 which had been collected from selling magazines. Judy Stouffer and Bill O'Dell were the lucky classmates receiving the salesmanship watches, as their token for superior salesmanship.

A magazine and class party have highlighted our joyous year which practically never had a dull moment!

After ordering our sparkly classrings we consider ourselves prepared for the Junior year ahead of us.

Freshmen

The day the Freshmen were initiated by the Seniors, the Freshmen girls were seen in giddish dress and with comically made-up faces during the day. Everytime they saw a Senior girl they met the fate of biting into a lemon. The Freshmen boys were required to honor the Senior boys by bowing on their knees. That evening at the allschool party there were tall tales of a trip to an island told by the girls; the boys made a marriage proposal to some unknown girl. The boys were blind-folded and made to believe that they would jump into a tub of water; but instead, handfuls of water were thrown on them as they made big jumps. After fulfilling all these and other ridiculous tasks, they were made full-fledge Pierce ton High School students.

Rojean Hass, Karen Method, Marlene Bennett, and Allen Regenos joined the class this year.

The Pierceton Cubs have turned out a successful season. They will enter the Sectional Tournament with a 16-6 record. The Cubs started the season with winning the first two games. Columbia City defeated the Cubs in the third game, but Pierceton bounced back to win the next three games before going into a losing streak. The Cubs started to improve by tourney time and they ventured to the final game before they were nosed out by Silver Lake in the last seconds of the game. The Cubs finished their regular season play with "flying colors". The Cubs will meet Leesburg in their opening game of the Sectional Tourney.

During the season they ventured to Columbia City to bring back a 4-way tourney victory. The Cubs show valuable prospects for future seasons.

The PHS baseball team was again the runnerup to the county champs.

The Cubs went all the way through the regular season without losing a game. In the County tournament they were beaten by the Milford ballclub after 14 grueling innings of base ball. These 14 innings were played at three different times, however.

The two teams met at the Syracuse diamond with a cloudy sky threatening to burst at almost any second. The Cubs took a 3-run lead early in the opening innings, but could not get in the required 5 innings before the rain began to fall.

The two teams met again to start a brand new ballgame. Again they were rained out with neither team scoring.

The third time they met, the Milford team got the first run, the only run they got during the entire campaign, but also the only run they needed to beat Pierceton and capture the county championship.

The Cubs look forward to a fine season again next year, and are going to try to bring the baseball championship to Pierceton and a fine coach, Dick "Itchy" Rothgeb.

The PHS Band, under the direction of Robert Smith, has participated in many parades, contests, and high school band days during the past year. In the fall, we attended band days at both Manchester College and Purdue University. The Halleck Day Parade, Mermaid Festival, Warsaw Centennial, and our Halloween parade were some of the parades where Pierceton passed in review. We won fifty dollars in prize money for parade marching.

A new bass horn and a baritone were purchased by the band. Technic classes were something on the "new" list this year, too. Each individual group practiced one hour a week besides regular rehearsal time. Ensembles such as clarinet trios, the woodwind quartet, trumpet trios, saxophone quartet, a drum ensemble, a trombone duet, and a baritone duet grow out of these technic classes. These ensembles all participated in the District Music Contest at Fort Wayne.

Our winter band concert was presented December 8. The program was highlighted by Sousa Marches, Christmas selections, and an arrangement of "Porgy and Bess" by George Gershwin. The spring concert will be held May 6.

The Band did its usual performing at basketball games and for the Queen's coronation. We helped out with music at the Student Council programs. The band enjoys playing for you, so keep behind us.

The first big day for our PHS Choir was the County Choral Festival on November 14. The Choral Festival was held at Pierceton this year with our choir acting as host. Prof. Clyde Holsinger, from Manchester College, directed the mass chorus of approximately five hundred voices.

At Thanksgiving time, the choir blended their voices in sacred song, singing at the Community Thanksgiving service held at the Presbyterian Church. After Thanksgiving, The Christmas Concert was next on the list. The selections of Christmas music were presented on December 12. The chorus members caroled in Pierceton following the concert.

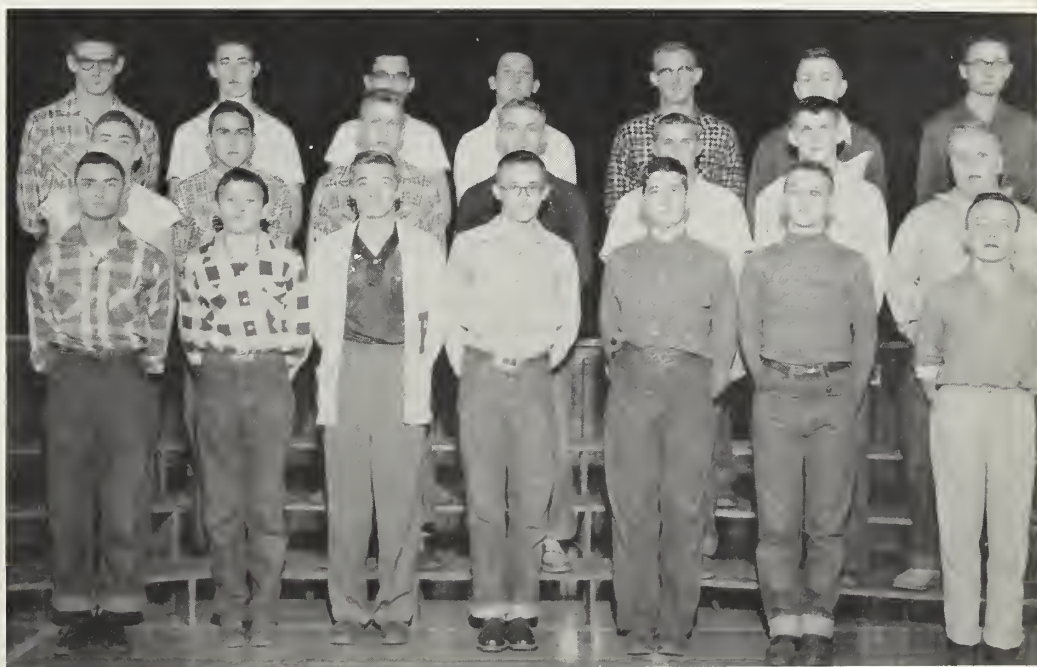

April 2 will be contest day for the choir. This will be held at Columbia City. Our choir will present three numbers on which they will be judged.

The Library Club, organized several years ago, has been a great credit to our school. The girls do many things to give the students a wealth of information. Processing the new books for both Monroe and Pierceton is one of the duties of the club. This process consists of breaking the books, inserting cards and date slips, marking backs, and filing them in their respective places. Another duty is to make bulletin board displays each month. Along with these tasks, each girl is assigned certain duties for one week.

On Wednesdays, the club meets as a class during school hours. Aside from all their work, the club finds time for fun. Three parties were held; a picnic at the Flowing Well and a ride on the dixe, another picnic at Ducky Long's cottage, and the high light, a dinner party at Miss Yontz's home.

The school can be proud to know that all of these girls are members of the High School Librarian's Association.

The Future Teachers under the direction of Miss Bryant and Mr. Meitzler have completed an interesting year of being "teacher's little helpers". The FTA members help grade papers, keep study halls, sub for absent teachers, tear tests, or doing little odd jobs to help out the teachers.

During the last semester the club started a milk program selling white milk for one cent and chocolate for two cents. The students all seemed to enjoy the mid-morning snack.

We hope to gain more Future Teachers next year.

Our basketball team has been greatly stimulated by our newly organized pep band. Our pep band adds spark and color to all our basketball games. Under the direction of Tom Kilgore, these eleven musicians have proven themselves worthy of the name "Pep Band".

A high school student stopped Mr. Meitzler in the hall of P.H.S. and asked that a camera club be organized. That is the story of the beginning of the club.

The members of the club are those who have cameras and those who are interested in photography.

Next year the Snapshoters plan to aid in taking pictures for the year book.

The first meeting of the club was called on January 31, and the following officers were elected; president, Dorothy Bowman; vice president, Pearl Widman; secretary, Sandra Salman; treasurer, Carol Snyder.

After a short discussion, the members planned to name their club the "Pierceton High School Snapshoters".

The Student Council had many "irons in the fire" this year as they worked energetically promoting funds for a new and larger trophy case in the community building. Don Lane's Cavalcade of Stars was the feature money raising program. Free tickets were given to all the Pierceton and Monroe students. A profit of around $800 was estimated. The funds remaining were to be disposed of by student choice, either in purchasing choir robes, playground equipment or a camera for the newly organized Camera Club.

The Student Council also sponsored the Basketball Queen Coronation and helped with the dance after the Silver Lake Coronation and helped with the dance after the Silver Lake game. Two school parties, sponsored by the Student Council, were held this year.

Pep Hop Society

Dance, Dance, Dance, any one for a dance? The preceeding seems to be the motto for the Pep Hop Society. This club is (you guessed it) a dance club, composed of Sophomore girls. These ambitious girls have sponsored two dances this school year. The first being after the coronation of the basketball queen. Before this big event, free dancing lessons were given to any student desiring to learn. The last dance was in honor of the varsity, managers, cheerleaders, and, of course, Mr. Niles. Mr. Niles was crowned King of Hearts, and Mrs. Niles was crowned Queen of Hearts.

The Future Homemakers of America have accomplished much this year and have had their share of good times. The officers, members, and advisor are working toward being an honor chapter. This can only be done with the cooperation of each member. The Pierceton F. H. A. girls have enthusiasm to improve their fine record and become an honor chapter.

One of the social highlights of the year was the annual F.H.A.-F.F.A. party. The girls served a chili supper, then treated the boys to a show at warsaw.

The officers of the Pierceton Chapter are: Etta Druley, President; Sandra Brubaker, Vice president; Betty Wertenberger, Secretary; Barbara Van Dine, Treasurer. Sandra Brubaker and Sandra Salman were delegates from Pierceton for district F.H.A. officers.

In February, the Chapter sponsored a George Washington Bake Sale. This is a sample of the work and play of our Pierceton Chapter of Future Homemakers of America.
